

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

There is some talk by members of the fire department to minimize the Fourth of July celebration in Truckee this year because of the apparent dearth of funds promised for the event. Nevertheless the boys are going ahead with plans to promote the best celebration they can under the circumstances and even though this year's affair will be of lesser magnitude than last year's fine show they should have the deserved support of the entire community.

The sad death in Sacramento last week of Mrs. Percy Lazier left a gap in the ranks of our better citizens which will be hard to fill. Active socially and civically, Mrs. Lazier endeared herself to hundreds who join in extending sympathy to her bereaved husband and other relatives.

Last week we predicted that the high school's annual play would be well worth attending and now we can say "we told you so." The young men and women displayed a deal of talent and evidenced the hard work which they had put in learning the parts they so well played. A lot of credit for the success is due also to Miss Munro, who directed the production.

The damaging rumor about town that the chamber of commerce refused to contribute to the fund for staging a celebration here on July 4, is a falsehood of the worst kind. The chamber voted to donate the same sum as last year and never voiced a thought to the contrary. It being taken for granted that the chamber is organized for just such projects.

STUDENTS ATTEND FAIR IN LARGE GROUP

About 60 elementary and high school students, accompanied by members of the faculty, enjoyed last Sunday at the San Francisco Exposition on Treasure Island. The group left Truckee on the Southern Pacific Saturday night returning Monday morning, tired but gratified by their visit to the Island.

One of the main events enjoyed was the Cavalcade of the Golden West. The Japanese, Argentine, Brazilian and Philippine buildings attracted much attention as did other fine exhibits. The last ferry for the Nevada County group left just after the lights were turned on to leave a beautiful picture in the memory of the students.

BAY COUPLE, KNOWN HERE WED IN RENO

The surprise marriage of Miss Edith Mary Roache and William E. Perry, well known east bay couple, occurred at Reno May 20. Miss Roache and Perry are well known in Truckee where they often visited.

They had their wedding breakfast in Truckee with very close friends. Their marriage being a surprise to all. After the breakfast and receiving well wishes of friends they left here for an extended honeymoon in northern California.

Perry has often hunted in the Truckee area for years. Mrs. Perry is well known among the college set and has spent several vacations in Truckee during past years.

MORE PRECIPITATION IN THIS REGION BY UNSEASONAL SNOW

Seven-tenths of an inch of moisture was added to the season's total by the unseasonal snowstorm that struck this region during the weekend and continued Monday morning, according to Forest Ranger H. I. Snider who added that the danger of fire was diminished somewhat and that stockmen were gratified because of the added feeding range. Sheep feeding on the summit were forced to this level by the storm.

Because of the warmth of the ground the snow did not settle for any length of time although six inches were measured on Martis Peak at the close of Monday's snow fall.

Several minor traffic accidents on the summit were reported as cars were stalled without chains.

Mattos Second To Enter Supervisorial Race In This District

Second Announcement Made For Elections In 1940

Joe Mattos well known local business man for the past 25 years, has announced his intention of being a candidate at the 1940 elections for the office of supervisor from this district.

He is the second local man within the past week to make the declaration, C. B. White having announced his desire to seek the same office in last week's Sierra Sun.

Mattos came to Truckee first in 1909 and five years later engaged in business here and has been a steady resident since that time. He is engaged in the Mattos Ice and Beverage company which he owns.

Mattos issued the following statement:

"In permitting my name to go on the ballot at the 1940 primary election, I have taken into consideration the needs of this district and I am fully confident that I am qualified to care for them in an efficient and capable manner.

"I have made this district my home since 1909 and have been in business in Truckee since 1914, a total of 25 years. I have worked on the roads in and around Truckee for the past five years at various times and am familiar with that kind of work.

"I am making this early announcement so that it will give everyone an opportunity to acquaint themselves with my qualifications prior to the election next year."

TWO ARE ARRESTED BY GAME WARDEN ON TRUCKEE RIVER

With fishing on the Truckee river getting better as time goes on, Game Warden William LaMarr finds his time well taken and during the past two weeks arrested two violators for infringing upon the fishing laws.

Judge Evelyn Bliss of Tahoe fined Gino Giovannoni of Truckee $25 on May 22 for having fished too close to the dam at Tahoe City on May 16. The warden said that fishing was not permitted too close to the dam and issued warnings that fishing off the bridge is prohibited.

V. A. Molignoni of Reno paid a fine of $25 before Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith for fishing near Floriston with fresh trout spawn.

Both men were arrested by LaMarr. LaMarr this week warned that "In district 23 it is unlawful between May 30 and July 31 to take any trout or whitefish in any stream flowing into any lake within two miles of its mouth, extending toward its source."

These streams are open between August 1 and October 31.

Lakes other than Tahoe and Donner which are now open will be open in district 23 on June 30.

Mrs. Lazier Dies In Sacramento; Last Rites Held

Prominent Truckee Woman Expires Following Illness

Local friends of Mrs. George Berkert Lazier, wife of Percy Lazier, were deeply saddened by word of her death which occurred in the Mercy hospital in Sacramento late last Thursday night.

Mrs. Lazier was a well known and beloved resident of Hobart Mills and Truckee for more than 32 years and here had endeared herself as a good neighbor.

Her birthplace was Virginia City where she also had many friends as well as in other sections of the state. Mrs. William Dewar of San Francisco and Richard Beckert of Oakland, sister and brother of the deceased are also survivors.

Mrs. Lazier was a member of the Episcopal Church and the chapel services held in San Francisco carried out her religious belief. Cremation followed in Mount Olivet cemetery in San Francisco. W. H. Laity and Mr. Claybourn, former cashier at Hobart Mills were two of the honorary pall bearers from this vicinity.

Lazier was called to his wife's bedside more than two weeks ago and notified his sister Mrs. Louise Gracey of Reno who left her home with her husband about three hours after Lazier had gone to the capital city. Upon reaching there, Mrs. Gracey was stricken suddenly and rushed to Sutter hospital where she underwent an operation. It was reported that her condition is improved at the present although the length of her stay there was not ascertained.

Large Crowd Here As Charter Given To Truckee Rotary

Program Presented As Many Clubs Attend Affair In Truckee

Approximately 200 members and guests assembled at the grammar school auditorium here Saturday to witness the presentation of the charter to Truckee Rotary Club and to enjoy the banquet and fine program incident to the occasion. The presentation was made by District Governor Joseph Borroughs of Oakland who was accompanied by Mrs. Borroughs and their son and daughter.

Charles McPherson of Reno, which club sponsored the local organization, officiated as master of ceremonies, being introduced by President Joe Mattos of Truckee Club, following the invocation by Rev. G. J. E. Keetch. C. B. White, president of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce gave the address of welcome.

Community singing with a solo by Charles Worsham, accompanied by Mrs. Worsham enlivened the enjoyable evening. A piano solo by George Hall and tap dancing by Miss Fritze Jean Naddenriep of Minden were among the highlights on the program.

Ed Pierce, Truckee president elect, was called upon to introduce the officers and members of the local club, while visitors were asked to introduce themselves and their guests from various clubs all over northern California and Nevada. Most of the visiting clubs brought valuable gifts for the new Truckee club and Secretary Lloyd Greene gave the speech of acceptance.

In his interesting and educational address, Borroughs told of the development of Rotary since it started in Chicago in 1905 under the direction of Paul Harris. The organization has expanded and now includes more than 5000 clubs with more than 200,000 members in 86 countries of the world.

Among the visitors was Heine Cooper of Reno who has never missed a meeting of the club held weekly for 17 years. The Reno group was headed by President Jack Howell, while District Governor Elton Gus Pardee was here from Susanville.

Adolph Schmidt presented Miss Anna Marie Munro, the director, with a gift from the students in appreciation of her work which extended over a period of several weeks in addition to regular duties.

Immediately following the last curtain Miss Munro was hostess at a party for the theater staff and the players at the California cafe.

The architect, George C. Sellon has completed his work and the plans have been approved by the board and members of the American Legion building committee.

While it has not been specified when the work will start or how long it will require to finish the project, it is expected to be completed this summer, providing the bids meet with approval.

It is understood that as soon as the building is completed the valuable collection of trophies now being held at Nevada City will be returned to enhance the structure.

Bids for construction should be sent to County Clerk R. N. McCormack while the plans are available at Sellon's Sacramento office. Only licensed contractors will be permitted to bid.

TASK OF CLEANING UP CEMETERIES IN TRUCKEE STARTED

Last Saturday morning a number of the boys of the Pioneer Club began the task of cleaning up the local cemeteries with men of the community who assisted in the work by grubbing brush and hauling away debris. F. S. Powell, sponsor of the plan has been working at the job for several days.

The work done Saturday made a decided change in the appearance but much remains to be done to complete a real cleanup. Plans are under way for further work before Memorial Day but the cooperation of all who can assist is needed. In the work no distinction has been made between plots but those owning lots are urged to clear their portion and the volunteer crews will take away the debris between.

Boys assisting Saturday included Humbert Ciardella, Alex Clements, Gerald Clements, Sammy Costa, Harry Digesti, August Esola, Kenneth Foster, Mac Gates, Philip Guthrie, Harvey Hocker, Kenneth Immer, George Kamp, George Keetch, Edward Weeden. Among the men on the job were Harry Baldwin, Tom Dolley, Frank Gaennie, Rev. G. J. E. Keetch, Karl Kielhofer, Frank Powell, August Sassarini, Roy Schmidt and Erving Waters.

Follett, Mrs. Harold Laity, Mrs. Hazel Lewis, Mrs. Jennie Watkins and Mrs. C. B. White. Coca-Cola for the lunch was provided by William Englehart, Sr. and the ice cream by Judge C. E. Smith.

THE PARADE BEGINS

Those clean-up campaigns throughout the State to show millions of visitors a bright, spic-and-span California haven't been in vain. The tourist parade is already gathering momentum. The motor vehicles station on the Redwood Highway reports the number of incoming cars in April was 68 per cent higher than last April. California, here they come.

POLITICS WARM UP

If the public is getting a little dizzy looking into the swirling cauldron of political prophecies for '40, let it take heart. So are the experts.

"Garner and Dewey far in lead for presidential nominations next year," proclaim the conductors of one poll.

"Humph!" retorts Secretary Ickes. That "humph", we predict, was tossed in the direction of Cactus Jack. "All baldersdash. A conservative Democrat can never win. It will be a New Deal Democrat—or Roosevelt."

And the poll-takers keep adding up the answers—and asking the questions. "Roosevelt popularly drops," comes the word from one group of opinion takers.

"I'll take that with a grain of salt," is the gist of a quick rejoinder from General Hugh Johnson, often a sharp-tongued Administration critic. "The President isn't through yet. I'll count on him to produce an ace from up his sleeve when he wants it."

What's it all add up to? Just early season training, the man in the street concludes, for the great American game of politics which opens in earnest in just a few months hence.

And he's right.

DON'T RO BYOUR TOWN

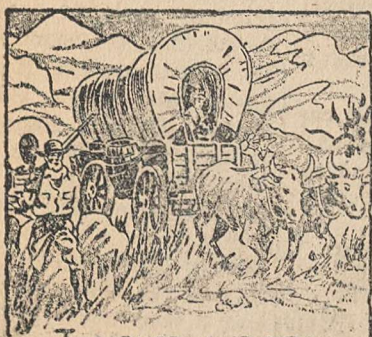

It's not only the tourist trek that's gathering momentum at this season of the year.

There's also the influx of itinerant peddlers keeping their summertime date with California. With feet firmly planted against the door-jamb, these perambulating vendors will be unloading their wares at "super-bargain" rates to the accompaniment of a swift line of chatter to benumb the unwary listener.

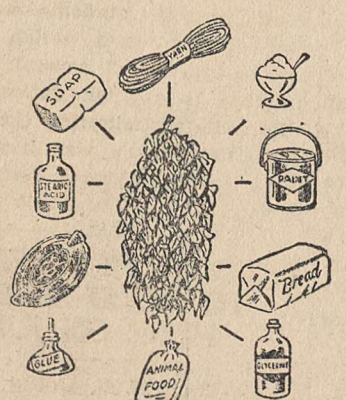

But the "super-bargain" rates usually turn out to be higher than the cost of similar articles of better quality at the local stores.

That, however, is only one of the evils of purchasing from fly-by-night vendors. Why support "gypsy" traders who pay no taxes to the local community, pay no rent for stores, pay neither heat, light, nor water bills, give no employment to local merchants, or contribute nothing to local activities, as do the established merchants here? They carry the bulk of the

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, May 25 (UP)—The State Assembly is aptly nicknamed the Cave of the Winds. If all the useless speeches were bundled up, the blast would be tremendous. Such fooling around, particularly when the lower house is as far behind in its work as it has been since the session started, would make interesting reading for the voters back home.

A case in point took place the day the Administration's Compulsory Health Insurance Bill first came to the floor. In the midst of explanations of the bill, someone discovered that a recording machine had been installed in the back of the chamber and was taking down verbatim everything that came out of the loud speaking system.

Floor Leader Ben Rosenthal, D., Los Angeles, stopped his argument to inquire who had put in the machine and why. From that point, the Assembly became embroiled in a lengthy argument as to why such a machine should be putting speakers on record, who granted permission, wasn't the Assembly a public place, why weren't tax load and they produce the jobs and payrolls that make this community alive. The wandering vendor produces none of these things.

Is the itinerant peddler so important that he deserves this much attention? Government reports say "yes!" In cities in which the peddler nuisance is not stopped, say these reports, approximately $11 per capita is taken out by these transient sellers and solicitors. Multiply that by the city population and you have an appallingly high loss for the city. And a fat profit for the peddlers who "worked" it.

Buy at home, and support the men who help to support your community.

meetings broadcast, etc., etc.

Unexpected surprise was the finding of a pretty stenographer in the gallery, also taking down everything and apparently rather a permanent fixture. Others recall the Administration had installed a stenog during the budget argument and wanted to know why the fuss about opponents of the Olson health measure taking down everything on a machine instead of by shorthand.

Upshot was that the names of the stenographers and operators were taken and their employer, which revealed The Public Health League of California had asked for the dictograph transcript. The hubbub finally died down after an hour's delay, only result being to give some of the more valuable legislators a chance to make a speech.

It begins to look as if the legislature may fold up its tent somewhere around the weekend of June 3. The Assembly Rules Committee set a tentative date of June 2, which may or may not mean anything. But this much is certain—the paychecks won't be found in the mail boxes after May 20 and no one is human enough to want to work for nothing, even for the pleasure of making speeches and getting their names in the newspapers.

Consequently, by the time the end of the end of the second payless week comes around, it is a safe bet most of the lawmakers will be fretting to get away. The budget should be approved by then—although it has looked doubtful in recent weeks if it ever will be—and the appropriation bills handled. Much of the volume of snarled legislation probably will be tossed overboard in the rush toward adjournment.

If the present trend of the Legislature continues, little or nothing of the original Olson program will be enacted into law. Only trivial bills for the most part have gone to the Governor's desk so far and most of the major proposals are either spiked in committee or killed on the floor.

Among the Governor's major requests apparently stymied are the Forty Wages and Hours Bill, the Donnelly Lobby-Regulation Bill, an

MOTORIST ESCAPES DEATH AS AUTO DIVES OF GRADE

TAHOE CITY, May 25.—A very narrow escape from death was experienced here on Sunday morning by Fred G. Phelps, Jr., of Oakland, whose new car skidded on the wet pavement near Emerald Bay, hurtled across the highway and 25 feet down the steep bank bringing up, after overturning, against a huge boulder. This boulder saved the car and driver from rolling over down the steep bank to the shore of Emerald Bay at least 300 feet below.

The only injuries suffered by the driver were cuts over one eye that necessitated the services of Dr. C. B. Pedersen, and body bruises. The car was almost a total loss.

It is believed the driver may have been blinded by the heavy snow fall.

El Campo Inn at Homewood is now open for the season, according to Joe Orsi and Pete Ceccarelli, the owners, who are serving complete Italian dinners as a feature attraction at the popular resort.

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman)

Your legislators really went to work last week handling numerous bills. The assembly was in session Friday and Saturday nights endeavoring to catch up somewhat with their heavy calendar which last Saturday totaled 531 items in addition to 56 items on the inactive file. On Saturday the first real "call of the house" was placed in the lower house with the result that for 12 hours the assemblymen could not leave the chamber. Dinner was served each legislator at his desk while the sergeant at arms and highway patrolmen brought in several absentees.

Although the pay for all legislators stopped with last Saturday's checks the writer cannot see how the session can end for two or three weeks.

Many controversial bills, including revenue bills the budget and relief are still to be heard in addition to more than 600 other measures.

The bill which would create a separate department for mines separating the present mining bureau from the department of natural resources appears to be doomed as far as this session goes.

Your assemblyman last week was appointed a member of a sub-committee of the fish and game committee which has under consideration a water pollution bill. Two hearings have been held on the bill and we believe that it will be amended satisfactorily both to the sportsmen and to industry.

There has been considerable newspaper comment regarding the defeat of the Donnelly lobbyist bill by the assembly. The writer voted against this bill and in a later article we will discuss the matter of lobbying. However, there is a bill now before the lower house which we will support 100 per cent. This bill, A. B. 2241, sponsored by Assemblymen Kepple and Dilworth provides for the punishment of bribery and bribe solicitations.

Many members of the legislature visited Angels Camp last Sunday to attend the 12th annual Jumping Frog Jubilee. A resolution inviting the members of the assembly to attend the affair was introduced by your assemblyman at Saturday's session.

Miss Fanchon Tunnard of San Francisco spent Saturday at Tahoe investigating the possibility of a novelty and curio shop locations at the various resorts. She plans to return to the lake next week.

C. Q. Atherton of Stockton is spending a few days at Tahoe where he is the guest of his son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. G. Weller Atherton.

days and holidays. One and one-half time shall be paid for over time.

Plans and specifications may be seen at or obtained from the office of the architect, California State Life Building, Sacramento, California. Requests for plans shall be accompanied by a deposit of $25.00 for each copy of plans and specifications loaned out. Deposits will be returned up on receipt by the architect of the plans and specifications in good condition. Plans and specifications will only be given to duly licensed Contractors.

All bids shall be presented on blank forms which may be procured at the office of the architect. No bid will be considered unless cash, a cashier's or certified check made payable to R. N. McCormack, County Clerk, in the sum of at least ten per centum (10%) of the amount of the bid is enclosed with the bid, as a guarantee of good faith that the party to whom the contract may be awarded will within ten (10) days after the award is made, enter into the necessary agreement and furnish the necessary bonds for faithful performance and payment of claims, and in case the party to whom the contract is awarded fails to enter into such agreement or to furnish said bond, said cash or check will be forfeited to the County of Nevada in the manner provided by law. By order of the Board of Supervisors, Nevada County, California.

25 Pound Fish Caught In Lake Tahoe Sets Record for This Year

TAHOE CITY, May 25.—The biggest fish caught in Lake Tahoe this year is reported to be the one caught last Tuesday at Jameson Beach by Peck Jensen of the Y-Bar at the south end of the lake. The lure used was a red-headed bass plug and it required 20 minutes to land the big mackinaw before it could be gaffed.

On cleaning the trout they found a 14-inch fish inside the 25 pounder.

Mrs. Hulda Nielsen with her friend Margaret Merz of Auburn visited at her Sunnyside home last Saturday and expects to return to the lake in June.

MANY BIG CATCHES

TAHOE CITY, May 25.—Many fine limits of trout are still being taken out of both the Truckee river and Lake Tahoe. As the gates at the Truckee river dam are now open, the Truckee has considerably more water especially down to Squaw Creek.

Both bait and fly fishing are prevalent in the river, but only bait is used in the lake.

(BY OPERATIVE WB)

Our exclusive forecast of several months ago that Sheridan Downey, California's junior U. S. Senator, will likely be the Democratic nominee for Vice President, is now receiving confirmation from many of the Washington columnists, Mr. Downey, due to his tremendous pension following is now getting more fan mail than any other member of the U. S. Senate. And with a conservative, like John Nance Garner, heading the Bourbon ticket, the Democrats need a vote getter like Silver Tongued Downey, to give popular appeal to their ticket. Watch Mr. Downey.

There are five G-Men in Sacramento, looking into something. And everybody's interested. The truth is our operative reports, that the gentlemen are concentrating on fraud in the relief set-up. And relief chislers had better start migrating. The heat's on—and no fooling.

Governor Olson, our spy advises, called his special election for the "ham and egg" proposal—but at his own price. The "ham-and" pensioners must agree to qualify initiative petitions for several of the pet Olson bills which have been killed in the Legislature, including a labor relations act, a general tax bill and compulsory health insurance.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., May 25.—(UP)—Two Klamath Falls anglers went angling. They returned with a fish story and a fish.

When Otto Sari hooked a large trout using 21-4 test leader, the fish broke the leader taking along the hook and sinkers.

C. Tavela, Sari's fishing companion, hollered at his downcast friend a few minutes later, displaying an 18 inch trout with the lost hook, five inches of leader and the lead weights in its mouth.
